

Program on Space Set At School

"Today's Scientist" is the theme of a series of programs being presented Fridays at 7:30 p.m. at Arnold Elementary School, 4100 227th St., Torrance at the school's science club.

Presentations will feature speakers from the space industry, the field of astronomy, and the field of nuclear science.

Major Arthur Buila of Space Technology Laboratories will discuss the Air Force research and development program Friday. Scheduled to speak on "The Nuclear Scientist" March 11 is Dr. Warren Fordy, physics instructor at El Camino College.

Recent trends in the field of astronomy were discussed by Thomas Craig of Mount Wilson Observatory at the initial talk last Friday.

Magic Class Scheduled At YWCA

A class in magic for boys and girls, ages 7-12 years, is open for registration now at the Torrance YWCA, 2520 W. Carson St.

Dennis Breinlein, instructor, is well-known in the South Bay area as a magician, having given many magic shows, and also as an instructor. The class, meeting on Tuesdays from 4-5 p.m. for eight weeks, will start March 8.

Breinlein will teach simple tricks in "sleight of hand," card tricks, rope tricks and many others.

At the end of eight weeks the class will offer a Magic Show for parents and friends, a fun way to learn a profitable hobby for any boy or girl, also teaching dexterity and coordination.

Sullivan to Head Lyman Campaign in Wilmington

Eugene T. Sullivan, a lifetime resident of Wilmington, age from 6 months to 14 years. A past president of the Wilmington Democratic Club, Sullivan has served as a member of the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Wilmington Coordinating Council.

Sullivan, 530 W. Opp St., will head the Wilmington campaign of David K. Lyman, who is seeking the Democratic nomination from the 32nd Senatorial District.

A petroleum engineer, Sullivan is employed by the Long Beach Oil Development Co. He and his wife, Patricia, graduated from Loyola University in Los Angeles. He attended Fries Avenue Elementary School and Banning High School and was one of nine children ranging in age from 6 months to 14 years.

Auditions Extended

Auditions for California's famed Junior Philharmonic Orchestra have been extended seven days to March 11, founder-conductor Ernst Katz has announced.

All Southern California musicians between the ages of 12 and 19 who play violins, violas, cellos, basses, woodwinds, or percussion instruments may telephone 276-5923 for an audition appointment.

There are no audition fees or membership charges for the 100-member orchestra. Dr. Katz issued a special call for boys and girls who play bassoons, string-basses, and violins.

'Sleeping Beauty' Ballet Company Slates Two Performances Here

A cast of 35 dancers is now in rehearsal for the Beach Cities Peninsula Ballet Company's production of the "Sleeping Beauty" ballet which will be presented Sunday and again Saturday, March 12.

Bill Roberts, who has served as director and choreographer of the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association and the Indio Date Festival, will dance the testing role of the Prince.

The difficult role of Princess Aurora will be shared by Barbara Simonson and Sharon Wickstrom. Miss Simonson will dance Act 2, while Miss Wickstrom will perform in Act 3 of the production.

The first performance will be given at 2 p.m. Sunday in the auditorium at Mira Costa High School, Manhattan Beach. A second performance is scheduled at 8:15 p.m. March 12 in the Redondo Union High School auditorium.

The Saturday evening performance will be followed by a formal reception at the Lobster House at the Redondo Beach King Harbor Marina. The entire ballet company will be present to greet guests.

Proceeds from the presentation will be used to support a scholarship fund to send outstanding area dancers to Europe with a touring company. Tickets for the performances may be obtained from the Chambers of Commerce in Redondo Beach and Hermosa Beach.
